

US Constitution Questions

1. Q: Has the Constitution always guided the country?
2. Q: Does the Constitution allow the Supreme Court to make law?
3. Q: Does the Constitution allow the president to make law?
4. Q: Does the Constitution give the federal government any power in the field of education?
5. Q: Where in the Constitution is there authorization for foreign aid?
6. Q: What are the three branches of government named in the Constitution?
7. Q: Does the Constitution have a minimum age requirement for a senator?
8. Q: What are the constitutional requirements for a person to be president?
9. Q: Did the Constitution give the federal government power to create a bank?
10. Q: May treaty law supersede the Constitution?
11. Q: Does the Constitution allow a president alone to take the nation to war?
12. Q: Are there any specific crimes mentioned in the Constitution?
13. Q: Are the Bill of Rights considered part of the original Constitution?

14. Q: According to the Constitution, how can a president and other national officials be removed from office?

15. Q: What authority does the Constitution give the vice president?

16. Q: How many amendments to the Constitution are there?

17. Q: Does the Constitution say anything about illegal immigration?

18. Q: Does the Constitution tell us how new states are added to the union?

19. Q: How is an amendment to the Constitution added?

20. Q: Is the term of a president limited by the Constitution?

21. Q: Which part of Congress is designated by the Constitution as having the “power of the purse?”

22. Q: How does the Constitution explain expelling an elected member of the House or Senate?

23. Q: What does the Constitution say about financing a military arm?

24. Q: How many times is the word democracy mentioned in the Constitution?